

ARMED SERVICES COUNCIL

celebrates

Coast Guard Birthday

with Guest Speaker

REAR ADMIRAL WILLIAM G. KELLY,

Superintendent, United States Coast Guard Academy

THURSDAY, AUGUST 6 AT NOON

Rear Admiral William G. Kelly assumed the duties of the 42nd Superintendent of the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut, May 30, 2019. He reported to the Academy after serving as Assistant Commandant for Human Resources (CG-1) in Washington, DC. As Superintendent, Rear Admiral Kelly oversees the Coast Guard Academy's recruitment, accession, education, development and graduation of cadets with a Bachelor of Science degree, followed by their commissioning as officers in the United States Coast Guard.

For more information regarding Rear Admiral Kelly's remarkable career, please see his full bio on the website.

IMPORTANT EVENT INFORMATION:

RESERVATIONS, FACE MASKS AND SOCIAL DISTANCING ARE REQUIRED.

Reservations are required by August 4 · Luncheon and program will start promptly at Noon. There will be no reception. Upon registration, please go directly to your assigned seat · Due to Covid-19 – All seating will be assigned for social distancing Day of walk-ins cannot be accepted.

Price: $45.00

SPONSOR A SERVICE MEMBER:

Purchase an extra ticket or two so a serviceman or veteran can attend this patriotic event

For reservations, please log on to www.unionleague.org.